TEMPUS FUGIT

This year time has flown by at Royal Music. It seems like only yesterday we were celebrating the New Year and now we are kicking off our fall music lesson schedule. This is only the second issue of this newsletter this year. Some of our reader's thought we had forgotten about them. We haven't.

Music is a wonderful hobby that can be enjoyed year round. As the leaves start to change and temperature drops it is a great time to renew your love of music. We have a few great new fall classes with seating still available. Perhaps some lessons would rekindle the spark you felt when you first began making music.

On Halloween we are hosting a Halloween Party. Details are inside this newsletter, costumes are optional. As with all Royal Music events there will be great live music.

This November Royal Music welcomes back Dennis Awe. Dennis has been a good friend of Royal Music for many years. He currently is the number one national artist for the Lowrey Organ Company.

Our students have been having a lot of fun this year. We have tested a new course program that both challenges the students while helping them learn about their instruments. We are looking for more people to take the next session of these lessons.

Hopefully you will receive one more Royal Page newsletter before the end of the year. (It depends upon our editor's schedule.)

Warm wishes for a safe, healthy music filled autumn.

National Touring Concert Organist

Dennis Awe IN CONCERT

It's been more than 10 years since Dennis has visited Royal Music. His concerts are a fun filled musical extravaganza. Dennis is a favorite of many local organists and his concerts are truly an event no to be missed.

Local Organ Fest To Be Held Friday, October 23rd

Royal Music is hosting an Organ Fest local event on Friday, October 23, 2009. The Organ Fest Competition is sponsored by The Roland Corporation.

Local participants will perform a five minute performance for a panel of judges. Winners of each category will represent New Jersey in the regional competition held in Orlando, Florida February 2010.

Organ Fest is sort of like American Idol for Hobbyist Organ Players.

There is no charge for these lessons. It is our hope that we can help you get the most out of your instrument.
